Focus is the only word everyone speaks atleast once in their daily lives, business language and all interactions at every walk of life. Thats how I named my company " Focus"

My mom always dreamed me to become an Engineer. The interest further got into my early life as my father was a van driver who helped me to learn about service and bodyshop at a young age as a boy. The key organisation SAE International and SAE India helped to create the skill set and continue my love on Engineering.

Engineers solves complex problems and make people lives more comfortable. Thats how the " Engineering" word is always a choice for me.

So in October 2010 I decided to be on my own and then started Focus Engineering. As every entrepreneur gone through roller coaster rides, Exiting and learning customer projects. Focus Engineering should be the choice for customers and partners to work.

Focus Story should inspire every indian who comes from a rural town that we can create something with our hard work and passion

Dr APJ "Dream Dream Dream", "Dream transform into thoughts and thoughts into action in 2002 "when he came to our college.
